

Master and Commander: a Weekend in Nelson's Navy

October 19-21, 2018 | Historic Montgomery's Inn and other sites | Toronto

Organizer: Karen Millyard • (416) 578-1031 • 1812dance@gmail.com

Programme

Friday

Daytime. Tour and open-hearth cooking workshop at National Historic Site Fort York, cruise (crewing optional) aboard tall ship Playfair, tour of a private collection of Napoleonic artifacts.

Evening. An evening at Montgomery's Inn: a simple supper, live music, games, naval merriment, cash bar. This is the only meal included in the ticket price; all others are priced separately.

Saturday

Daytime. A fireside breakfast, followed by the daily grog ration, lectures, demonstrations, hands-on workshops, displays, games and discussion groups, pre-ball dance workshop.

Evening. A delicious Georgian meal, followed by a lamplight tour of the Inn, the evening ball complete with live music, English country dancing and refreshments during the intermission; for those not wishing to dance, there will be historical games, discussion groups and period newspapers.

Sunday

Daytime. A fireside breakfast, followed by the daily grog ration, reading the Articles of War, mustering to divisions, lectures, demonstrations, quill-writing, knot-tying and other workshops, displays, games and discussion groups.

Evening. A fireside Trafalgar Dinner, toasts and general conviviality, followed by Trafalgar Pub Night!
