Organizer: Karen Millyard • (416) 578-1031 • 1812dance@gmail.com

Programme

Friday

Daytime. Includes crewing aboard tall ship Playfair and an open-hearth cooking workshop at Montgomery's Inn.

Evening. An evening at Montgomery's Inn: a simple supper, live music, games, naval merriment, cash bar. This is the only meal included in the ticket price; all others are priced separately.

Saturday

Daytime. A fireside breakfast, followed by the daily grog ration, lectures, demonstrations, hands-on workshops, displays, games and discussion groups, pre-ball dance workshop.

Evening. A delicious Georgian meal, followed by a lamplight tour of the Inn, the evening ball complete with live music, English country dancing and refreshments during the intermission; for those not wishing to dance, there will be historical games, discussion groups and period newspapers.

Sunday

Daytime. A fireside breakfast, followed by the daily grog ration, mustering to divisions, reading the Articles of War, lectures, demonstrations, quill-writing and other workshops, displays, games and discussion groups.

Evening. A fireside Trafalgar Dinner and general conviviality!
