

Tender and Impassioned

A concert of music from Jane Austen's collection

Charming and often dramatic, these pieces by the fashionable London composers of Austen's time are rarely if ever heard today. Come and hear what the ladies and gentlemen enjoyed in the drawing rooms of her era.

Programme researched and selected by Dr. Dorothy de Val.

Performed by

Barbara Ackerman (flute)

Stephen Fuller (violin)

Laura Jones (cello)

Dorothy de Val (piano)

Susanna McCleary (soprano)

Sunday, April 22

Montgomery's Inn (416) 394-8113

(4709 Dundas St. W at Islington)

2 – 4 p.m. Includes tea and tour.

$30 / $25 students & seniors by April 6

For ticket purchases see

A Weekend with Jane Austen, April 20-22

www.JaneAustenDancing.ca